

AAPSS

The AMERICAN ACADEMY of
POLITICAL & SOCIAL SCIENCE

What Use is Educational Assessment?

Introduction

Amy Berman, Michael Feuer, & James Pellegrino (Volume Editors)

The History of Assessments in American Education

“History of Testing in the United States: PK-12 Education”

Maris Vinovskis

“History of Testing in the United States: Higher Education”

Michael Nettles

Assessments for System Monitoring

“Assessment for Monitoring of Education Systems: The US Example ”

Erin Fahle, Benjamin Shear, & Kenneth Shores

“Assessment for Monitoring of Education Systems: International Comparisons”

Henry Braun & Judith Singer

Assessments for System Accountability

“Testing, Accountability, and School Improvement”

Susanna Loeb & Erika Nakamatsu Byun

“Testing, Accountability, and the American Economy”

Eric Hanushek

Assessments for Selection and Placement

“Assessment in American Higher Education: The Role of Admissions Tests”

Rebecca Zwick

“Assessment for Special Education: Diagnosis and Placement”

Jennifer Frey

Toward the Future: Theories of Knowing and Implications for Assessment

“Advances in Measurement and Cognition”

Robert Mislevy

“Classroom Assessment to Support Teaching and Learning”

Lorrie Shepard

“Assessment to Promote Equity and Epistemic Justice: A Use-Case of a Research-Practice Partnership in Science Education”

William Penuel & Douglas Watkins

“Assessment of Complex Performances in Digital Environments”

John Behrens, Kristen DiCerbo, & Peter Foltz

“Assessing Complex Patterns of Student Resources and Behavior in the Large-Scale”

Knut Neumann, Heike Theyßen, & Horst Schecker

Policy Forum

“Forum: Do Policymakers use Educational Assessment?”

A conversation with Carl Cohn and Rebecca Maynard